

ABSTRACT

5 An integral label for composite materials. The label, printed with two layers of ink may be embedded on the surface of the composite material using a heat curable resin. The label that provides good contrast with both light or dark colored composite materials. A light colored ink layer being exposed when used with a dark colored composite and the label being reversed to expose a dark colored ink layer when used with a light colored composite.